Dear Jack,

Would you please write to me and let me know if you received this letter, this poem, this cross and most of all this valentine.

The valentine that I'm sending to you is a symbol. To let you know I understand first hand a person can do a thing that under normal conditions would not think of doing..... several days later would give anything if only it could be undone. The valentine was returned to me in yesterday's mail from my very favorite and most dear female friend because on January 2nd 1964 I did something over which I had no control. No one but myself knows I really couldn't help it but I couldn't, I couldn't, I couldn't too with you being a man you wouldn't know the almost unbearable pain a woman does go through on bringing a baby into the world. I have brought six into the world and am in the position to say MENTAL TORTURE is far greater. You must not worry Jack, I have written to Wade, Belli, Brown and Stone. I have warned them that should they decide on the death penalty for you the LORD is going to be greatly angered. I can not predict in just what manner HE <sup>will</sup> ~~might~~ show HIS WRATH but the town will be shaken.

"May God be with you" and have no fear other than the FEAR OF GOD.

We all come into this world innocent and equal. It is, not necessarily our immediate parents but every one who comes in contact with along the way of life that makes us what we turn out to be.

though they be red

God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world...

—Galatians 1:3,4

If somehow we could have all the wealth of this world, Which has been used for destruction of men,
To carry the words of the Lord over there, To the lands where destruction has been.

If through God we could have as many men who have given,
Their lives in those wars over there,
To carry the words of the Lord up above To the banks of shores everywhere.

If through prayer we could install in world leaders the faith Of Moses, of Isaiah, and Paul, We could land such an army on those distant shores,

Armed only with the power from God That could never fail to make a peace Which could stop destruction and sin.

We could make this world a beautiful place Like the home the Lord has on high, By teaching the Words of the Lord to the world, Through this army of Christian men.

To Mr. [unclear]
Dear [unclear], I hope that this letter may bring you some satisfaction & hope for better things.

It is not only your own by your public action, you have gotten yourself in this dilemma, and all the pity in the world will never change it.

But I have a sincere concern for you as a girl's first child, and maybe your trials will open the doors for better enlightenment and closer relation with your mother.

My husband 83 years of age and a German, and I were watching the television and witnessed the whole the girl that fell on our nation like a lightning, that fatal day.

We both cried with grief and sorrow, that in a wonderful country like ours, could be so much hate and malice, to the extent that he would kill an overhanging person.

were lucky to escape.

W. <sup>and</sup> Both generosity, and loved our President, who has sacrificed his young life in the attempt to achieve a sincere friendship, and new kind of progressive life for all the nation, not merely for -

Our Society has much work ahead to weed out this hate, racism and self righteousness! Anyone who is of hate racism is a self, mentally inclined, and in some of our Southern society, we ~~truly~~ have great many false and twisted ideas about justice & love for true brotherhood of mankind!

If we read the Bible or go to church where repeatedly, we are told to love one another to be kind to one another to be just and let God do the judging we often wonder if these folks are asleep while the minister preaches! From the little attention they give, it seems they are wasting time & money, not alone offending God, but their false picture of every Christian.

is seen in the Bible "Do not trust in the strength of man, nor in the power of God, but in the power of His arm, and in His strength, and in His power, and in His love."

There is no power in man, but in God. Because God is all in all! He fills all space, He is all power, all truth, all life, all love, all forgiveness.
Love because He gave His only perfect Son to die for our sins.

Jesus was the man, Christ was the divine mind, spirit, the link which means detached from the Father God the Spirit.
They as the power can will come in Christ, as the one perfect Son of God and the Son of humanity, so long will they live in darkness, and God will not be able to reach them, because they lost the divine guiding light that kept them in close contact with their God.

Jesus Christ is their only hope of glory.
He is the way, when we accept His faith and follow His example we shall find new life, new peace, new hope. This is the reason why.

4. wife to you, to keep you, to find yourself - to give you new hope!

The people were the first children of God, and they were still His perfect children, if they realize their mistakes.
Like all humanity, they turned away from God, when they believed themselves to be deceived by false gods, meaning overstepping the narrow things which His wisdom in God!

The Bible is still the Best book in the faith, if we only read its messages correctly, and at least try our best to do it.

So the world was so spoiled, that many forgot God as their Father, and sinned on - they brought upon themselves sickness, pain, and trouble.

But because God is love forgiving love He want to save them, many He knew were innocently misguided in doing wrong, and there, He want to save, so He cannot force Christ to be born, sending Him with His God - power to teach them new life, to give them new hope - to guide them out of darkness!

Believe me Mr. Rudy this is true, if you steadily persevere in teaching and pray sincerely, He will give you hope and lead you to have better life-circumstances everything seems impossible for you, "He will do all things, are possible."

"I'm not writing this about your loss out of criticism but out of hope that they awake to your absent guidance! and accept Him as their Savior.
The old Testament is of the past, the new Testament is of the new, —
"Be ye renewed in the spirit" Jesus said, not because He was satisfied with His God giving power, but because He knew humanity was in need of fresh new ideas of their identity to God. They had to learn all over that life is eternal, and man is created in the image and likeness of God Himself! But men must work with God and His laws to find it out!
God doesn't use force on His children.

1374 to God, that you have sinned, do it in all sincerity within your heart just keep changing for the shell was better. We must not know the boys of 14 or 15 are taking the old concept of individualism, justice of 11 and another of 18.

He said that the national council of the party which will meet in Ottawa in May will select a special study of the structures. This was a direct situation in the relationship which now exist between the provincial and the federal groups.

He announced that the QLP executive committee which met last week had decided to absorb the party's weekly paper, La Nouvelle. It had been owned until now by a private group.

He also revealed that the next QLP convention which will meet in Montreal next Sept. 18-20 will have as its theme "The Youth of Quebec." Details would be announced later.

QPP sources state the method of investigation to date "is unsatisfactory to the QPP."

The RCMP, the Army Provost Corps and the Montreal Police Department's special anti-riot squad are also interested in the investigation.

Montreal police had said they were of the opinion the theft was "a pounce."

The robbery was at the armory of the 8th Field Squadron, Royal Canadian Mounted, Mine automatic rifles, machine and machine guns were taken.

They were recovered upon afterwards by a Montreal policeman, who found them hidden in a crevice.

QPP spokesmen said this afternoon the arms had been placed in damage bags before being hidden in the snow.

"Which means it was possible the thieves hid them there until they could cross back for them," he said.

The youths were arrested less than an hour after the arms were found. Police also recovered a number of photographs and companions stolen from the armory.

Jury Finds Man's Death Justified

A seven-member jury ruled today a 19-year-old boy committed "justifiable homicide" in killing his father in and the father's attack on his family early last night.

Coroner Marcel Trehan concurred with the verdict. He said it was appropriate in view of "the fear that permeated the house as a result of the victim's sadistic, convulsive tendencies."

Victim was Clement Dubreuil, 37.

Endeavour at the hearing today showed Dubreuil was inflicting severe punishment on his family when his son decided to stop him. The boy took a 15-pronged shovelform a closet and knocked his father down with a blow that crossed his head.

Dubreuil got up again and went after the boy who ran back to the closet and got a 30.06 calibre rifle. He shot his father four times in the chest.

Best Daughter

Dubreuil ended a 40-day sentence at Montreal Jail seven months ago for what was described as "a violent beating."

The wife testified at the hearing today that she had him arrested a number of times for molesting and for molesting. "My life with him was 17 years of hell," she said.

The boy said his earlier recollections were of being driven up in the air and thrown off the ceiling by his father.

"Several times," he swore, "my father punched my nine-month-old sister in her crib, and I make her stop crying."

The jury rendered its verdict without hearing the state's evidence.

Pinball Game Non-gambling

A pinball game should not be labelled as a gambling device, simply because it is difficult to win, the Quebec Court of Appeal ruled today.

Justice Paul Casey and Pierre Bédard maintained the appeal of Rita Trépanier against a conviction of operating a gambling house at 301 St. Clement street, in September, 1963. The alleged offences took place in December, 1963. Mr. Justice Antoine Girard, in a dissenting opinion, ruled that the appeal should be rejected.

The game is operated by a mechanical device.

Mr. Justice Casey said: "What the prosecution had to establish was not merely as a probability but beyond a reasonable doubt that in the operation of this particular machine the skill and experience of the player were of all practical purposes, of little or no importance."

"It was not sufficient to show that the machine was a difficult one on which to score, nor could the prosecution draw the fact that some experts had played the machine a relatively small number of times and had failed to win."

Police Lieutenant Steve O'Neil said at Miss Trépanier's trial in Montreal Court that the machine was a game of chance. He said that the electric chips and bumpers which sent the ball in

Dear Mr. Rubenstein:

I'm penning you these lines to say that the members of the Assembly of God Church of Port Aransas, Texas, have joined other Christians in prayer for you to say, asking God to help you to realize that you are a sinner and, that you, ask God to have mercy on you and, forgive you.

I am also enclosing tracts that I pray you will read.

God loves your soul Mr.

Rubenstein; but, He certainly doesn't love the wicked things you have done, and, the dear Lord is pleading with you, that you turn from your all past, and, lead to Jesus Christ whom died on the cross for you or me.

Since I ask God to forgive I am indeed one of the happiest women in this world. and, I do want others to have this sweet Experience by accepting Jesus, and, live for Him.

There is no amount of Money that could cause me to reject Christ.

So I do pray that you listen to His Voice and, accept Him. you won't regret your making this your choice. Maybe you have already become a Christian. I pray that you are. and, we would like to hear from you if you would care to write.

Sincerely yours.

Dear Mr. Ruby:

Since you appear to be receiving several copies of the Bible, I would like to suggest that these be placed in the various tanks at the County Jail. I know that many times Bibles in the tanks are torn and have some of the pages missing. This could be a valuable contribution to the prisoners in the months to come.

If I can assist in any way as you continue to discover new and remarkable experiences through the reading of a new version of the Holy Bible I would be pleased to do so. It is indeed remarkable how God has manifested Himself through Jesus Christ. We believe that this God-like man best reveals the nature of God to mankind. May the Spirit lead you as you make some remarkable discoveries in faith.

Dear Mr. Ruby,

I pray nearly every night that you may get a fair trial and also become a free man. I know what you did was wrong, but no one deserved to be killed more than Mr. Lee Oswald. I know what I think has ~~nothing~~ to do with your trial. I just wish that I was to have a saying in your case, but I'm just a student in high school. world is full of sorrow.
But with sorrow bring the

The sad answer to that is "no, never". Never again will anyone see his smiling face.
Yet in the hearts of people throughout the world, he lives on. The world shall

I shall never forget him.
I would of liked to met

I wish you all the luck

Maybe what you did was

Dear Mr. Ruby:

Do you know that the Bible says that the Jews are God's Chosen people. I say that is comfort to you no matter what other way - I do pray that God may strengthen you and cause you to repent of your sins Confess Christ as your Savior. He came to save sinners and no matter how many sins are Christ can & will forgive but we must confess and acknowledge that Christ died on the cross to save sinners just like you and me.

I am a Protestant and I have a number of Jewish friends.

Do read your Bible and look up these references - They will help you know the truth

I pray for you and trust God to save you

Sincerely
A. Belcher

Dear Uncle Jack,

Sorry I haven't written sooner. But I wanted to write when it would do the best for you spirit wise. Florence and the baby are fine and everything seems to be going along fairly well. Flo's dance studio is growing very well and I am working as a production assistant on the "Perry Mason Show" for CBS. Rodaine is two and a half now and growing like a weed. We've enclosed a picture of her so look good in the envelope. she's very small.

I spent quite a bit of time with Earl when he was out here in Los Angeles. He was really putting in long hours and hard work. I don't know if he remembered to tell you, but your harbor friends out here want to be remembered to you.

With all that has been going on and written and said since last few months, a lot of memories have been brought back. There sure is a lot of water under the bridge since Independence

Mom's letters that she hasn't gotten over Dad's passing. I have been trying to get her to move out here, but she won't give in. With the kind of winters back there you would think she was an eskimo. One of these days she'll give in.

Hollywood is still here and I am in the middle of the rat race. Once you're in the film industry you stick with it and try to come across the one deal for a picture or television series that will put you on your way. Florence says if I had a nickel for every hour I've spent promoting a deal we could retire. I probably don't need to tell you that L.A. is growing by leaps and bounds and even the city limits will be the outskirts of San Francisco.

I don't think Melvin Belli will remember me, but we met when he was on a television show on CBS Los Angeles called "Viewpoint" with John Hart. I worked that show at the time.

Elle and Jenny asked to be remembered to you. Of course they hope that everything will turn out all right. Well that's about all from the West at present. Keep your head about you and think before you answer. I'm sure everything will turn out all right if you work with Belli and keep your spirits up. Hope to see you out here soon. I know a great steak house and the dinner is on me.

I had I believe no better plan. My only friend to me then was the killer he could not appear. But when you see I am not sure about it. <sup>possibly</sup> I was killed & need

May 22 years in a small house here. I understand that the 7th of 1894 was the day I was killed. I was in the city. If the 7th of 1894 was the day I was killed then May 22nd the first when the killer I would have told them that May 22nd was the day I was killed. As for the 7th of 1894 I believe the first of the month, I was a little more

Dear Jack:

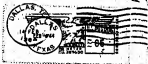

For your sake, stop making statements for television newsmen. Your statements are edited to make you look crude, or you are without a doubt the biggest ass of the century. Your statement on Hate Groups is an excellent example. How can you, a person in a blind rage of hate who deliberately gunned down a handcuffed man, lambast any hate group? If it is permissible for you to write, I would appreciate a reply.

I personally feel no malice toward you and will take this opportunity to wish you good luck.

De mi mayor consideración:

Por los preparativos que se hacen, para procesar a J. Ruby, hay indicios que se lo quiere ejecutar.

Le voy a decir pocas palabras:

1. Era muy querido el Presidente Kennedy no solo en EE UU, sino en toda la orbe.
2. Somos muchos los asesinos potenciales de Oswald, examine su conciencia y verá que es uno de ellos.
3. Para nosotros, así, no existen dudas de que Oswald era el asesino de Kennedy y de Tippit, sobran pruebas y son abrumadoras, y al haberlo negado Oswald no cambia el suerto. El alemán que mató al niño de

4. Recuerda que no hubo pendencias entre Ruby y Os wald.

Why doesn't your celebrated Attorney call in 12 of the stippins who work in your vice-dne to serve on your jury? This would insure you the verdict you want and would also be in keeping with the high "Code known for.

You should get the same type of "justice"
you gave Lee Oswald.
It would surprise no

The state does not

THE EXAMINED LIFE

One Way of Looking at Everyday Manners and Morals

Some people who call themselves Catholics have been getting away with murder and it's time someone blew the whistle on them. Secretly they've been rooting for Notre Dame to lose football games (and succeeding too well). I wouldn't have mentioned this at all except that some of the same people refused to watch the Singing Nun when she appeared on the Ed Sullivan show. What kind of Catholic Action do they call that?

The forthcoming trial of Jack Ruby in Dallas is likely to raise a lot of sticky questions. It might, for example, prove nearly impossible to impress a jury of people without preconceptions about his guilt or innocence. Most of us watched the killing on television and in our discussions most likely came to one conclusion or another. The traditional screening of prospective jurors may take a long time.

The attorneys for Ruby have already implied that "temporary insanity" will be his defense. In a forthcoming book, "The Right To Life" (Holt, Rinehart and Winston), Norman St. John-Stevenson makes an interesting distinction between British and American jurisprudence in treating the insanity defense. (English law distinguishes "insanity" caused by external causes from that due to internal causes and usually accepts only the latter as a legitimate defense. In other words, English courts believe that only a "genuine emotional disturbance" "justifies" antisocial behavior.) A man who flies into a rage because of external circumstances has himself to blame and should face the consequences. (Under the circumstances, Ruby can be glad he's being tried in Dallas and not in London.) If and when he is acquitted of the killing (and from here that seems probable), Ruby's career should furnish guest appearances on TV programs (Will our mystery guest please sign in?), memoirs for magazines engaged in frantic circulation battles, perhaps even an anthology of his favorite patriotic speeches. It should far surpass the vaudeville appearances made by the Lindbergh kidnapping principals after Bruno Hauptmann had been condemned to the electric chair.

Maybe Jack could get Madame Nhu to team up with him. They ought to get along fine.

I would not take your type "only God has the right" but life is a mystery - know it all.

1355

Jack Ruby -
You recently stated in a published article that your "good friend" District Attorney Henry Wade discussed Earl's guilt with you.

Is it the Honorable District Attorney's policy to discuss a case with all local pimps, or only the big time vice barons who are respected at City Hall because of their big "pay offs"?

Dear Mr. Ruby,

Monday, January 17, 1964

I am a 20 yr. old junior at Michigan State. I am also a strong supporter of Barry Goldwater and the conservative form of Politics. I hoped that Mr. Goldwater would have soundly defeated John Kennedy in the last elections. This is because I disagreed with Mr. Kennedy's politics. As a man he was a great. He was one who lived in a world of politicians. He only sought to better everyone's place in life. He was unselfish and a friend to anyone who needed a friend.

Right now you are being tried for murder. People seem to conform to public opinion rather than acting from their heart. In my heart I find no guilt with you. I have seen you on television and was extremely impressed with your sincerity. People need only turn to the Bible to see how God hates disingenuous words at the soldiers who betrayed Christ. There is such a thing as "righteous indignation". Your was a selfless act. You had everything to lose and nothing to gain. You stood, not as a coward, but right at the front of the world. You took a blotch of evil out of the world.

I am a catholic and as one can know condemn murder. However do not be perfect.

Should I have known there at the time of Christ's murder & know I could not have stood by. Should anyone have known anyone in my family, & know I could not. Please, Philadelphia even mention, should I have been in your shoes & could say what I would have done. At my heart I, as well as millions of others, stand in your debt, but Dallas deserves for your life alone. I just wanted to write to let you know in my way that you are not alone. I admire your courage and of admire your sincerity. Temporary poverty is a degrading plan. It torments what was right in your heart.

You will not die. God will not allow it. He plans the winning a good life above the pride of a city on the image we must project overseas. You are not being judged by 12 people. You have already been judged by God and his power is greater than any court. My prayers have been with you and will continue to be so. You will get a jail term, but not a long one. Place your hope in God knowing what was in your heart that Sunday. God is a friend who will never leave your side. There is also a man in heaven named Ramsey who won't let you down. God won't let you die because the world is a better place to live in with you in it. I just want you to know that. I hope that I may grow to friendhood with a heart as big as yours. For me you won't be Jack Ruby, you'll be Mr. Ruby. Your heart's got class.

Sincerely yours

I am a Christian concerned with all people being saved from sin. I have read with much interest the accounts of your life before and since you committed murder. There is no doubt you committed the murder but I believe there is still hope for you in Jesus Christ. I have noticed the account of your reading the Bible and you saying you have been real interested and maybe a changed man; there is no other hope after death other than in the Lord Jesus Christ. Rom. Romans 8: 23 all have sinned and with out Jesus Christ we must all last eternally. Rom. Revelations 3: 20 Jesus is knocking at our hearts and we must let him come in. We must believe in him. Rom. Romans 6: 23 the wages of sin is death but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. We must accept that. Rom. Romans 10: 9-10-11. and believe also Rom. Acts 16.
According to the Bible you can be saved if you will.
Confess that you have sinned and believe. That is why Jesus came to the earth to save sinners like you and me.
You could yet have a good and useful life for the Lord. Your testimony for the Lord could be a blessing to many people. I will be praying for you and others

Mr. Jack Ruby!

I am a keen autograph collector, and as such I would very much have appreciated having a little greeting from you.

Of course I fully took part in those tragical events at Dallas during the late November days - in the newspapers and over the radio and TV. And I have come to ask myself a question - a question, which I do hope to be answered by you personally. What do you think and feel about those November events now afterwards?

When I at present ask you if you will kindly send me little personal greeting, it is
